28 RIVERSIDE DRIVE, TWEEDBANK, GALASHIELS

This is a very bright and cheery family house which is situated in a mature, quiet and desirable residential development on the outskirts of Galashiels and in due course will be ideally located for the new Tweedbank Railway Station as well as being within easy distance of the Borders General Hospital. The property has been renovated to bring it up to today's specification and in particular the kitchen has been completely upgraded. The property has a great outlook over the rear garden to the North-West.

The seller has plans and planning consent for extending the property to create a family room and a further two bedrooms with en-suite shower rooms the drawings for which could be available to purchaser and indicate the potential of further development of what is already an attractive property.

Riverside Drive is reached by turning left into Abbotsferry Road after entering Tweedbank. As the road bears to the right turn left into Riverside Drive. Number 28 is on the right hand side approximately 1/3 of the way along the cul-de-sac.
